

Deserted Mall

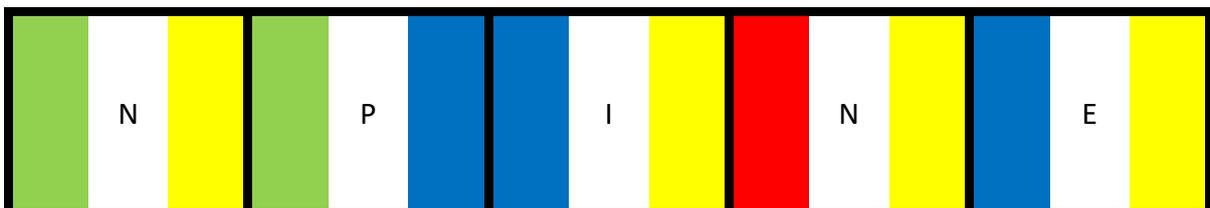

You arrived at a large mall which is eerily deserted, and cautiously search for clues. Suddenly, there is a loud crash, as hordes of undead pour out from behind the broken shutters of a game store.

"Zombies, Run!"

Looks like you'll need to come with the most efficient plan, one at a time, to escape from the zombies in order of proximity.

Leader

(Note: Specific image depictions and colors do not matter. It suffices to differentiate between the 4 colors by shade.)

Virtually all the zombies continue chasing you over the next 5K to 10K. If only you can use what you got from the plans to make sense of a different way to outrun these zombies.
